DIVINE MERCY

“Throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation...to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that humanity will experience in the years to come”. In the Year of the Great Jubilee 2000, Pope John Paul II used these words to inaugurate Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast to be celebrated every year on the Second Sunday of Easter.

The feast came at the urging of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska (1903-1938), a Polish religious sister and visionary. In her diary, she wrote how Jesus had told her: “I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of my mercy...Let no one fear to draw near to me, even though their sins be as scarlet” (Diary, 699).

The Divine Mercy Novena which began on Good Friday concluded on Easter Saturday. Mercy Sunday will be observed with special devotions at 3:00 p.m. today including the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

EASTER GRATITUDE

Our pastor, Father Jeffrey, thanks St. Dunstan’s parishioners and friends who came in great numbers to the Easter Triduum liturgies. Your fidelity to the Lord and your devotion toward His Passion are truly inspiring. Thank you to everyone who made these days so beautiful and memorable, many of whom gave up much of their long weekend to serve our parish, especially Deacon Philip, Jean Walsh, our altar servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers, music directors and choirs, videographer Enrico Alphonso, and Francis Fernandes, Owen Vaz, Trac Ba Luu, and Jim Boyle for all their extra help. With the co-operation of so many everything turned out wonderfully well. May the Risen Saviour bless all of you for your kindness and support.

SHARELIFE SECOND COLLECTION,

NEXT SUNDAY MAY 1st

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis has often spoken about the outreach of the Church and has focused some of his comments on the need to help others. Next week is ShareLife’s second collection, the words of the Holy Father remind us of the important work that ShareLife agencies do in support of the marginalized in our communities. Please be generous when making your donation.
