THE HOLY TRINITY

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Every time we make the Sign of the Cross, we acknowledge the central mystery of the Christian faith: that in the one true God there are three Persons. This doctrine distinguishes Christianity from all other religions in the world, and it is the foundation for everything else that we profess and believe as Catholics. But the teaching of the Trinity really explains much more than mere metaphysical propositions. It tells us about the inner life of God ~ the intimate love and communion that are constantly flowing between the Father, Son, and Spirit. God is far from an isolated being or uninvolved deity. His very existence has to do with relationships. If it is God's nature to share, and if we are created in His image, it follows that we too are meant to share our lives with each other. But the Trinity is more than just a model for togetherness: it also gives us the power to live it! We really can love one another as fully as Jesus loves us ~ if we draw from the love of God that has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5). Jesus promises that as we deepen our relationship with one another, our lives will start to reflect the very life of the Trinity ~ and that's how we can experience the joy we are meant to know as Christians!

ORDINARY TIME

Ordinary Time resumed with the end of the Easter Season at Pentecost. This long period of almost six months until Advent begins a new liturgical year, differs from the major seasons which commemorate certain events in the life of Christ. During Ordinary Time, the Church continues to celebrate and reflect upon the fullness of the Paschal Mystery of the Lord's dying and rising. Sunday is the highpoint of each week's work and prayer, faith and hope, joy and suffering. Each Sunday is also the beginning of another week in the Lord's service. Through the example and teaching of Jesus, the apostles and prophets, the Church calls on us to persevere in our efforts to love and serve God and one another in daily life. This extended period can be said to symbolize the present age of the Church as she awaits the return of the Bridegroom at the end of time. In the final weeks of Ordinary Time, the Church looks ahead to the Second Coming of Christ in glory as our judge.

DISPENSATION FROM SUNDAY OBLIGATION ENDS

Please note the following communication from the Chancery dated May 31, 2022:

On March 13, 2020, Cardinal Collins issued a communication to the faithful of the Archdiocese indicating that it was necessary to cancel public celebrations of the Eucharist..., stating: "For this weekend and any other which may be required, I grant the faithful dispensation from their Sunday obligation".

Given that most of the health and safety restrictions in our parishes are no longer in place and the faithful are able to attend the celebration of the Eucharist once again, the basis for the dispensation from the Sunday obligation has dissipated and is no longer in effect.

The Church does not obligate people to do the impossible. If individuals, based on their conscience, cannot attend Mass for a grave reason, including a great vulnerability to COVID-19 or because they are self-isolating to limit the spread of illness, then they are excused from their Sunday obligation, as the law of the Church allows.

After two years of COVID-19 restrictions, many have been deprived of the opportunity to attend Mass and to receive the most Holy Eucharist and all of us have missed the opportunity to experience community, including members of our parishes. As we come to the celebration of Pentecost this weekend, we invite and encourage the faithful to return to the practice of attending Mass in person.
