THE HOLY TRINITY

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Every time we make the Sign of the Cross, we acknowledge the central mystery of the Christian faith: that in the one true God there are three Persons. This doctrine distinguishes Christianity from all other religions in the world, and it is the foundation for everything else that we profess and believe as Catholics. But the teaching of the Trinity really explains much more than mere metaphysical propositions. It tells us about the inner life of God ~ the intimate love and communion that are constantly flowing between the Father, Son, and Spirit. God is far from an isolated being or uninvolved deity. His very existence has to do with relationships. If it is God’s nature to share, and if we are created in His image, it follows that we too are meant to share our lives with each other. But the Trinity is more than just a model for togetherness: it also gives us the power to live it! We really can love one another as fully as Jesus loves us ~ if we draw from the love of God that has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit

(Romans 5:5). Jesus promises that as we deepen our relationship with one another, our lives will start to reflect the very life of the Trinity ~ and that’s how we can experience the joy we are meant to know as Christians!

ORDINARY TIME

Ordinary Time resumed with the end of the Easter Season at Pentecost. This long period of almost six months until Advent begins a new liturgical year, differs from the major seasons which commemorate certain events in the life of Christ. During Ordinary Time, the Church continues to celebrate and reflect upon the fullness of the Paschal Mystery of the Lord’s dying and rising. Sunday is the highpoint of each week’s work and prayer, faith and hope, joy and suffering. Each Sunday is also the beginning of another week in the Lord’s service. Through the example and teaching of Jesus, the apostles and prophets, the Church calls on us to persevere in our efforts to love and serve God and one another in daily life. This extended period can be said to symbolize the present age of the Church as she awaits the return of the Bridegroom at the end of time. In the final weeks of Ordinary Time, the Church looks ahead to the Second Coming of Christ in glory as our judge.

CORPUS CHRISTI

This important feast commemorates the central role of the Holy Eucharist in the Church’s life and worship. The celebration of the Eucharist, most often called the Holy Mass, is the distinctive act of worship for Christians. For almost two thousand years, Christians have been gathering especially on Sunday, the Lord’s Day to celebrate the Eucharist in memory of Jesus as He commanded at the Last Supper. We believe that by the words of consecration spoken by the priest at Mass, the elements of bread and wine become the Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus, a change which the Church calls “transubstantiation”. The Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament: “My flesh is real food, My blood is real drink” (John 6:55) means that in Holy Communion, we are receiving Christ Himself. The Church encourages Catholics to receive the Eucharist frequently if they are free from mortal sin, have the proper dispositions of faith, love and reverence, and have fasted from ordinary food and drink for one hour. Adoration of Christ truly present in the Holy Eucharist whether reserved in the tabernacle or exposed in the monstrance on the altar has been encouraged by numerous popes and saints.

Due to the pandemic, it has been four years since we have had an outdoor procession with the Blessed Sacrament or special eucharistic devotions to mark this Solemnity. As we transition back to a more regular parish schedule and there is some question about the necessity of permits for an outdoor procession, this year we will observe Corpus Christi with a procession inside the church following the 12:00 noon Mass next Sunday, June 11, followed by devotions and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Everyone is invited to stay after Mass as we pay homage to our eucharistic Lord and King.

NEW STATUE OF OUR LADY

As it has become uncertain whether the statue we formerly borrowed for our annual Marian Celebration and Procession will be available for our use, we have recently acquired a new statue of Our Lady. This statue was blessed by Bishop Kasun when he visited us for the feastday of Saint Dunstan this past May 19, and which was used for the Marian Celebration last Wednesday, May 24. We are grateful to the family of the late Patricia de Rushe for donating this statue in memory of their mother.
