THE HOLY TRINITY

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Every time we make the Sign of the Cross, we acknowledge the central mystery of the Christian faith: that in the one true God there are three Persons. This doctrine distinguishes Christianity from all other religions in the world, and it is the foundation for everything else that we profess and believe as Catholics. But the teaching of the Trinity really explains much more than mere metaphysical propositions. It tells us about the inner life of God ~ the intimate love and communion that are constantly flowing between the Father, Son, and Spirit. God is far from an isolated being or uninvolved deity. His very existence has to do with relationships. If it is God's nature to share, and if we are created in His image, it follows that we too are meant to share our lives with each other. But the Trinity is more than just a model for togetherness: it also gives us the power to live it! We really can love one another as fully as Jesus loves us ~ if we draw from the love of God that has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5). Jesus promises that as we deepen our relationship with one another, our lives will start to reflect the very life of the Trinity ~ and that's how we can experience the joy we are meant to know as Christians!

ORDINARY TIME

Ordinary Time resumed with the end of the Easter Season at Pentecost. This long period of almost six months until Advent begins a new liturgical year, differs from the major seasons which commemorate certain events in the life of Christ. During Ordinary Time, the Church continues to celebrate and reflect upon the fullness of the Paschal Mystery of the Lord's dying and rising. Sunday is the highpoint of each week's work and prayer, faith and hope, joy and suffering. Each Sunday is also the beginning of another week in the Lord's service. Through the example and teaching of Jesus, the apostles and prophets, the Church calls on us to persevere in our efforts to love and serve God and one another in daily life. This extended period can be said to symbolize the present age of the Church as she awaits the return of the Bridegroom at the end of time. In the final weeks of Ordinary Time, the Church looks ahead to the Second Coming of Christ in glory as our judge.

CORPUS CHRISTI

This important feast commemorates the central role of the Holy Eucharist in the Church's life and worship. The celebration of the Eucharist, most often called the Holy Mass, is the distinctive act of worship for Christians. For almost two thousand years, Christians have been gathering especially on Sunday, the Lord's Day, to celebrate the Eucharist in memory of Jesus as He commanded at the Last Supper. Adoration of Christ truly present in the Holy Eucharist whether reserved in the tabernacle or exposed in the monstrance on the altar has been encouraged by numerous popes and saints. This year we will observe Corpus Christi with a procession inside the Church following the 12:00 noon Mass, next Sunday June 7, followed by devotions and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Everyone is invited to stay after Mass as we pay homage to our eucharistic Lord and King.

MARTYRS SHRINE

The National Shrine to the Canadian Martyrs in Midland, Ontario (16163 Highway 12 West) is now open until Thanksgiving weekend in October. This major pilgrimage site, served by the Jesuits, is celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Shrine Church (1926) and a century of pilgrimage, encounter, and living faith. The Shrine Church was built following the beatification of the eight Canadian Martyrs in 1925. Saint John Paul II visited the Shrine in 1984 during his apostolic journey across Canada. The Martyrs Shrine and the reconstructed Ste-Marie Mission welcomes thousands of visitors each year. Everyone is invited to the Shrine to join in the celebration of its Centennial Year and to give thanks for the witness of the Martyrs and their Shrine. A Solemn Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated on Saturday, June 27 at the Shrine, followed by a free concert with Juno Award-winning band Leahy. For more information contact the Shrine toll-free at 1-855-526-3788 or email info@martyrs-shrine.com
