PRECEPTS OF THE CHURCH

In the past few months, the Sunday bulletin has been reminding parishioners of their Easter duty to confess their sins at least once a year and receive Holy Communion during the Easter cycle of the liturgical year (between Ash Wednesday and Pentecost). The precepts of the Church are outlined in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (2041-46, 2048) and its Compendium (431-432). Because the precepts of the Church are considered normative and obligatory for all Catholics, it has been suggested that all five precepts showed be printed for the convenience of our parishioners. They are:

1. You shall attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation and rest from servile labour.
2. You shall confess your sins at least once a year.
3. You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season.
4. You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church.
5. You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church.

By means of these precepts, the Magisterium (Teaching Authority of the Church i.e. the Pope and bishops) guarantees “for the faithful the indispensable minimum in the spirit of prayer, the sacramental life, moral commitment and growth in love of God and neighbour” which is “necessary for salvation” (Compendium 431, 430). Though our weak and wounded human nature needs to know and follow these five precepts, it is to be hoped that generous souls who are sincerely striving for holiness, and with the prayers and example of the saints to inspire them, may, with God’s help, go far beyond these “minimum” requirements.
