POPE FRANCIS
THE SUNDAY OF
THE WORD OF GOD

THE SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD

Pope Francis has decreed that henceforth, the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be observed as the Sunday of the Word of God, a special day devoted to “the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God” (Aperuit illis). This observance will help the Church “experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of His word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world”. The Second Vatican Council and recent popes have encouraged Catholics to love and proclaim the Scriptures as the inerrant and inspired Word of God. Following the Council, the Church added a third reading to the Sunday Liturgy and introduced a three-year cycle of readings, thus opening up a wider selection of the Sacred Scripture to be proclaimed at Mass. This new observance adds emphasis to the importance of the Bible, which although the most widely published and distributed book, often ends up unread and unused, gathering dust on a shelf. Reading the Scriptures is not just for scholars but for all the faithful. As Saint Jerome famously said “Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ.”

THE WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

The annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity continues until Wednesday, January 25, the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul. It is the opportunity for all Christians to pray for the restoration of unity among all Christ’s followers according to His desire expressed at the Last Supper, “that they may all be one” (John 20:21). The Catholic Church is committed to ecumenical dialogue and this observance reminds Catholics of their responsibility to pray and work for Christian unity. The theme for this year’s observance is “Do good; seek justice” (Is 1:17) inspiring us to pray and work together for the unity willed by God for the Church. As the Second Vatican Council taught: ‘change of heart and holiness of life, along with public and private prayer for the unity of Christians, should be regarded as the soul of the whole ecumenical movement, and merits the name, ‘spiritual ecumenism’”, (Unitatis redintegratio, 8). Everyone is invited to join Cardinal Collins and a wide representation of Christian leaders to pray for the restoration of full visible unity this Sunday, January 22 at 4:00 p.m. at St. Andrew’s Presbyterian Church, 73 Simcoe Street at King Street West.
