

When the ten heard this, they became indignant at the two brothers. But Jesus summoned them and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and the great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave. (Matthew 20:24-28)

Guys I know you are surprised at Jesus' words to his apostles today, right? The great 12 being scolded not to jostle for positions!

Oh, well! That shows you how human they were. Jesus chose them specially for them to become models and teachers for us, even in their humanity.

And they learnt very well eventually. So next time you find yourself being selfish or putting yourself first at all times, recall the example of the apostles who learnt from Jesus not to be like that, okay?
