

Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up

Obviously and naturally his hearers thought Jesus was talking about the physical temple: the pride of the Jews and a central place of spirituality, culture and life. It was outrageous for his hearers to hear Jesus say that!

But wait, Jesus was not talking about the physical temple. He was referring to himself and the salvific death with which he would die and redeem the world!

Thank you Jesus for suffering and dying for us. With your 3 days in the grave you buried our death. With your resurrection you raised us to life. May we appreciate what you have done for us daily, unto eternal life. Amen.
