

The Jews picked up rocks to stone Jesus. Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of these are you trying to stone me?" (John 10: 31-32)

The plot is beginning to thicken. In a few days the Church will enter into the Holy Week with Jesus. And so shall we.

Jesus will suffer a lot of ingratitude from several quarters, making him wonder why they wanted to stone him for his good works. We too share this burden of ingratitude from others at times. Being stoned for doing good therefore is sometimes part of what we share with Jesus.

It didn't stop Jesus from continuing good anyway. Will it stop you or I from doing good?
