

Many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what Jesus had done began to believe in him. But some of them went to the Pharisees and reported to them what Jesus had done. (John 11: 45-46)

Jesus had raised Lazarus from the dead. There is a question I often ask myself. Did Lazarus die again after he was raised by Jesus?

But of course he did. And this is the main point. Jesus raised Lazarus up to show the greater power that resides within his own being: He is God. He has power to save not only from the present but even in eternity; he has power over death. "I am the resurrection and the life", he says to Mary and to us too.

Lord help us to look up to you, the source of our well-being and life. You lead us not only here on earth but to life everlasting.

