

4th day of Lent: Call of Levi the tax collector, better known as Matthew, one of the 12 apostles of Jesus

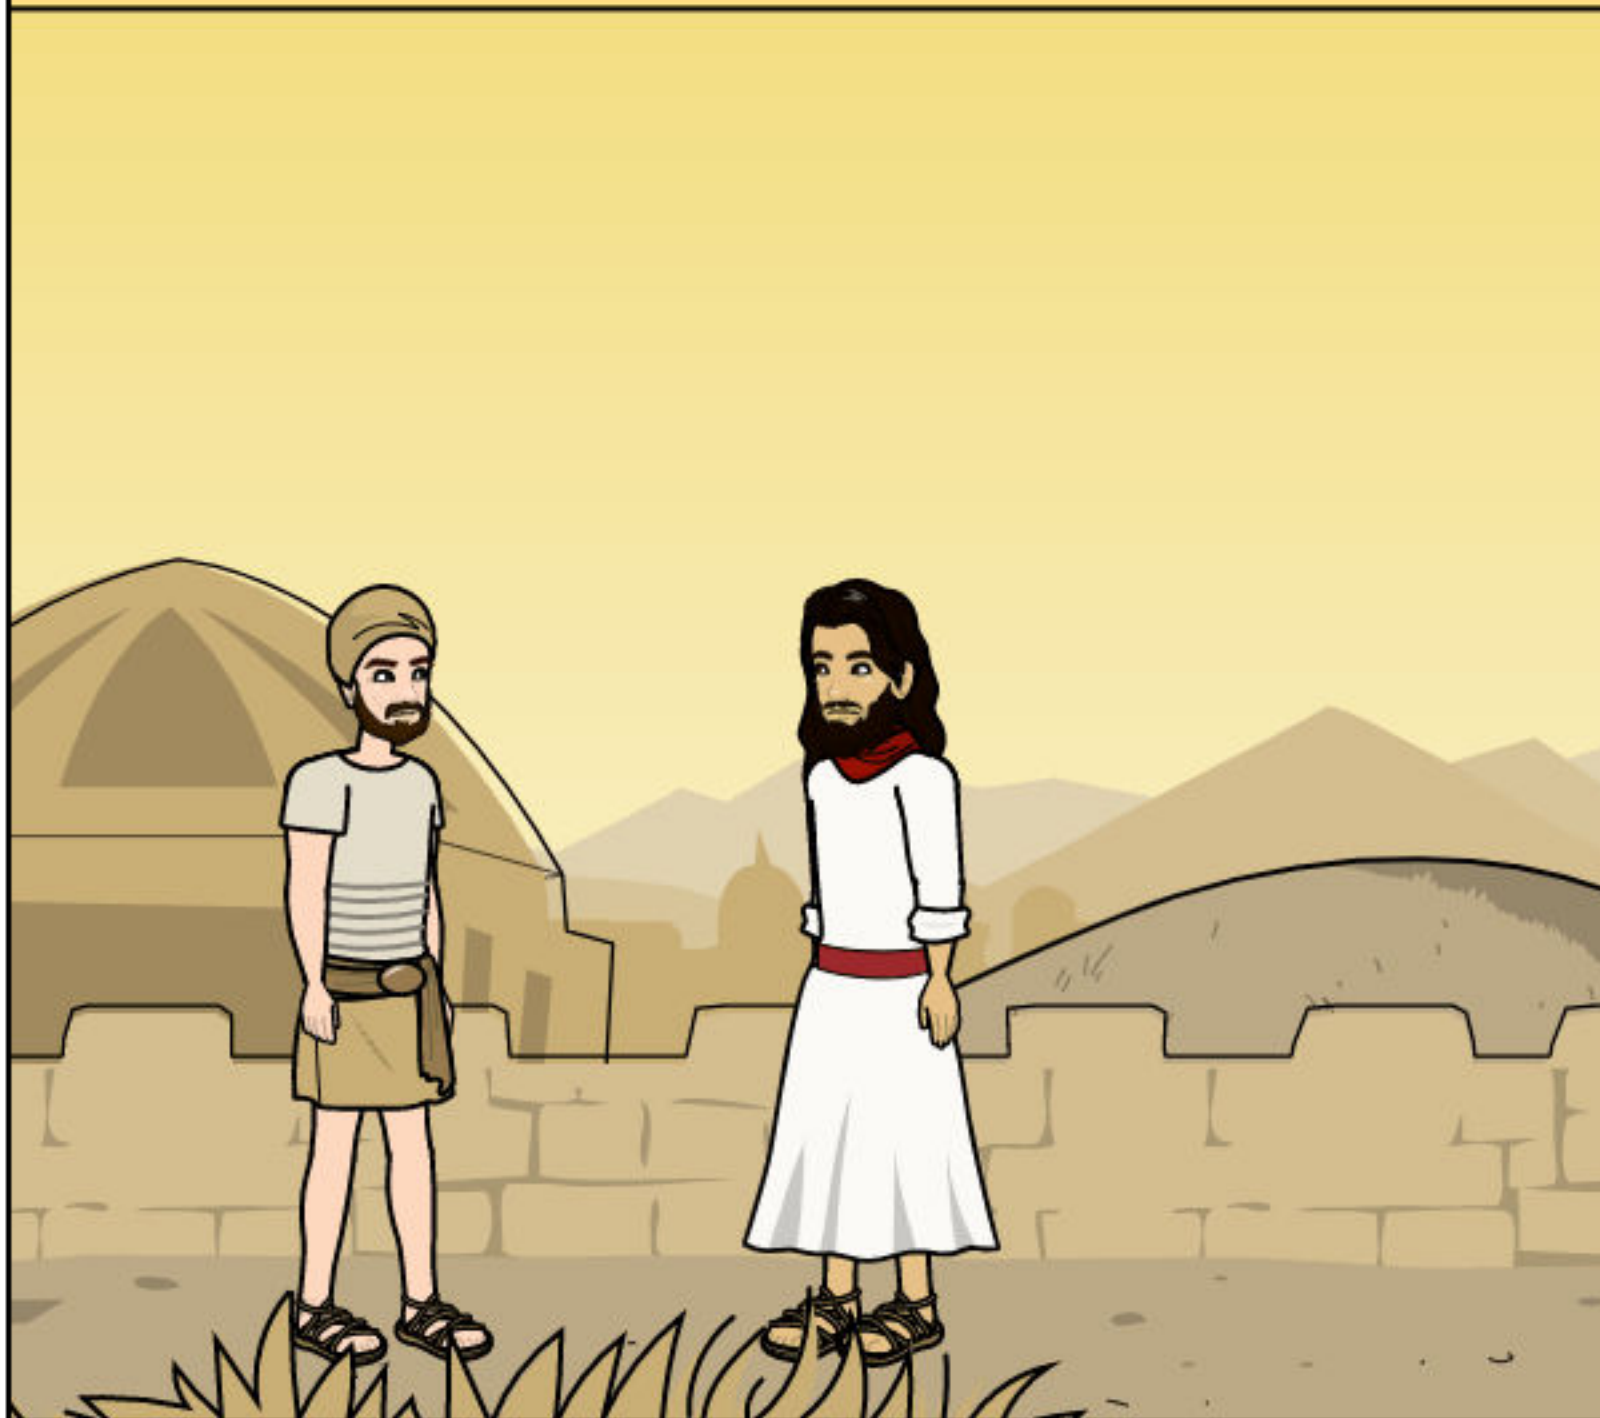

Jesus saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the customs post. He said to him, "Follow me." And leaving everything behind, he got up and followed him. (Luke 5: 27-28)

While many marveled why Jesus would call a tax collector who was perceived as a cheat and a bad man in those days, Jesus saw in Matthew a man that could become better

Jesus came to save, his name actually means "the one that would save his people from their sins".

Jesus came for you and for me; he came for all!

Thank you Jesus, our saviour!
