

2nd day of Lent

If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself

Jesus, how do we do that?

Not shunning opportunities to help others, for example. Or having some small fast during lent, like keeping from chocolate and saving the money to help the poor. Many ways guys!

Absolutely. Thinking of others first is one big way of denying yourself. Instead of playing games all evening for example, you decide to take care of your little brother's needs. Thus helping him and equally helping your mum. Those are baby but firm steps towards being like me. I came to serve, and I want you to be like me

Wao! I never thought of that. What of if I give up some time to help my little brother at home while mum is busy with some other chores. Is that denying myself too?

Fr. Victor

Lord teach us to be like you. To give and not to count the cost, to labor and not seek reward. May we learn to deny ourselves for your kingdom and the good of our brothers and sisters. Amen.
